

Profiling the Cross

Philippians 2:8 KJV And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

The Cross is one of the most recognized symbols in the Bible. It is the most recognized in the New Testament scriptures. It was prophesied long before that our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, would give His life for the sins of many on a cross. This type of death is called a crucifixion. What made this part of the prophecy stand out is that Christ was born a Jew. His ministry took him around Galilee and surrounding areas but his death was not Jewish, it was Roman. The Romans did not invent crucifixion. It was used systematically by the Persians in the 6th century BC. Alexander the Great brought it from there to the eastern Mediterranean countries in the 4th century BC, and the Phoenicians introduced it to Rome in the 3rd century BC. Romans took it to a new level during their 500 years of practice. For more information on how the crucifixion worked, use this link: <https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/14750495/>
