Lord's Supper Prayerperation

Confession is an element of true prayer.

Dear God and Heavenly Father, pardon all my sins:

Sins of omission and commission, angry tempers and attitude about things and my reactions;

Sins with my lips and shortcoming in my walk;

Sins of hard heartedness, stubbornness, unbelief, presumption, pride;

Sins of unfaithfulness to the souls of men; lack of bold decisions in the cause of Christ;

Sins of deficiency in outspoken zeal for Your Glory; Apathy lack of zeal;

Sins of bringing dishonor and shame to Your Great Name;

Sins of deception, injustice, untruthfulness; sowing seeds of discord;

Sins of impurity in thought, word and deed;

Sins of covetousness of substance unnecessarily hoarded and squandered, poor stewardship;

Sins in private what I watch on TV, internet, and social media platforms;

Sins of lack of study of thy Word, and lack of committing scripture to memory;

Sins of prayer hastily prayed and the neglect of it all together;

Sins of time misspent and vainly spent, carnal mindedness;

Sins of yielding to Satan's wiles and opening my heart to his temptation;

Sins of being unwatchful and a careless Christian;

Sins of quenching the Holy Spirit and grieving Him, tempting the Lord;

Sins against acquired knowledge and against conscience;

Sins against the law of unconditional love;

Pardon all my sins known and unknown, confessed and not confessed, remembered and forgotten.

Hear, oh Lord, and hearing forgive! (Psalm 51: 1 – 17)
