Exodus 17: 1 – 7 water from the rock. (cf. I Corinthians 10: 4 that rock was Christ.)

St. John 6: 32 – 35, 48 – 58 The Bread of Life.

Those that Hunger and Thirst after righteousness experience a deep desire for personal righteousness, which is proof of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. (Galatians 4: 1 – 6) The spirit within us cries Ab'ba, Father; which means "Father, I will obey you" signifying an intimate relationship and a childlike trust that a young child places in his "Daddy". Our desire of Hunger and Thirst must be earnest and Importunate- persistent almost to the point of annoyance. (Genesis 30: 1, Job 23: 12, Ruth 1: 16 – 17). Hunger and Thirst are appetites that need frequent replenishing, our inward man needs replenishing as well with fresh supplies of mercy and grace (Ephesians 3: 16, St. John 15: 14 – 15). To Hunger and Thirst also means to take patiently oppressions and persecutions and commend themselves to God (II Timothy 3: 8 – 11). Those who Hunger and Thirst after righteousness recognize who's we are and count the cost daily to deny and mortify the flesh (Romans 8: 12 – 17). We must search ourselves, recognize that we are poor and empty spiritually; and in the depths of this spiritual poverty, hunger, and thirst for that which only Christ can give (Psalm 42: 1 – 2). Only then can we experience complete fulfillment and satisfaction (Psalm 107: 9). The Bible promises that with Joy shall we draw water out of the well of salvation (Isaiah 12: 1 – 3).

Revelation 22: 16 – 17 And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.
